Payroll

IQ BackOffice knows that payroll processing is more than calculating withholdings and cutting checks. Our state-of-the-art technology creates digital images of each payroll transaction and routes them electronically via a secure website for your approval. We work with your payroll processor to process and mail checks, authorize direct deposits and electronic pay cards, manage tax filings, deduct garnishments and provide instant reporting.

- Keep current on rules and regulations at all levels
- Process new hires and terminations more efficiently
- Provide more accurate data
- Coordinate timely paycheck delivery
- Answer employee questions
- Quickly and accurately resolve issues

HR Outsourcing

IQ BackOffice provides a full range of human resource administration and management services. Our solutions scale from narrowly-focused software implementations to full department replacements. For small businesses, IQ BackOffice deploys a complete, easy-to-use, self-service human resources platform. For medium-sized businesses, IQ BackOffice combines software and outsourcing human resources function. And for businesses with large, established human resources departments, IQ BackOffice offers solutions that integrate seamlessly with existing platforms while improving performance. With IQ BackOffice, your human resources department will realize lower costs and a higher quality of service, helping you attract and retain your best employees.

- Human resources management
- Human resources information systems (HRIS)
- Payroll management and integration
- Web-based talent management applications

Full Service Accounting

IQ BackOffice offers complete accounting services that combine best practices and top-to-bottom process reengineering with web-based workflow systems. Our integrated solutions reduce errors and lower costs while improving your controls and decision-making. We leverage your existing accounting systems rather than replacing them, reducing implementation timeframes, risk and expense, while retaining familiar interfaces and reports. Our proprietary Archimedes software enables you to manage your processes from any web-enabled computer, while our partnerships with electronic payment providers can turn your accounting costs into real savings.

- Accounts payable
- Billing and accounts receivable
- Financial statement preparation
- Payroll services
- Daily deposit verification
- Cash and credit card reconciliation
- Fixed asset reporting
- Electronic payment solutions
- Secure Virtual Payment MasterCard®, with cash-back revenue options

Real Estate & Property Management

If there's a bigger challenge than managing diverse properties, it's managing the invoices, bills and back office processes that come with them. Each of these issues is multiplied by the number of properties you manage. IQ BackOffice turns your paper processes into web-based electronic solutions and automatically forwards them to a manager's inbox for rapid approval. You'll see 99.97% accuracy, instant status reports and savings of up to 68% over current costs. When it comes to balancing the cost, speed and accuracy of your back office processes, the answer is easy: IQ BackOffice.

Manufacturing & Distribution

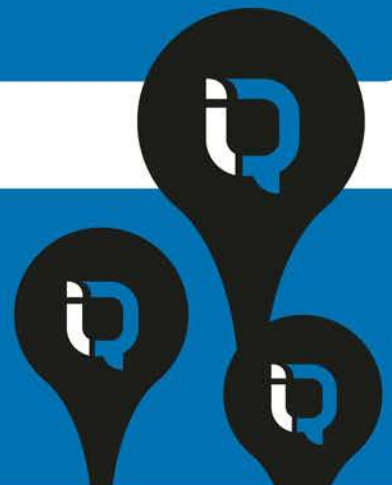

Precision, quality, efficiency and reliability are the key components to any manufacturing-related process, and your back office is no exception. IQ BackOffice delivers full service accounting, payroll and human resources programs with a five-sigma average accuracy rating of 99.97% and savings of up to 68% over current costs. Whether you manage your processes in-house or use an external provider, IQ BackOffice will turn your paper-based systems into secure and accurate solutions that are available from any web-connected computer. Your customized dashboard will make granting approvals and receiving status reports simple whether you are on-site or on the road.

IQ BackOffice's services include:

- Financial statement preparation
- Accounts payable
- Accounts receivable
- Billing and cash application
- Payroll services
- Human resources
- Daily deposit verification
- Cash and credit card reconciliation
- Fixed asset reporting
- Electronic payment solutions
- Secure Virtual Payment MasterCard®, with cash-back revenue options

"Dealing with 1,800 employees and managers in 24 restaurants across the country isn't easy – but I hear compliments about IQ's service all the time. This is a big load off my plate, so I can focus on more important things."
